

GREAT RACING MATCH
TEN BROECK AND MOLLIE M'CARTY MATCHED FOR TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS—FOUR-MILE

We received a telegraphic despatch last night from Mr. M. Lewis Clark, Jr., president of the Louisville Jockey Club, stating that Mr. Winter's bay mare Mollie McCarty and F. B. Harper's bay horse Tom Beacock had been matched at four-mile beats for $25,000, the race to be run over the Louisville course, at Louisville, on the 4th of July next. This race will call out the largest crowd of people from all parts of America to witness it.

ever collected on a race course in this country. Mollie McCarty has never lost a heat in any of the many races in which she has been engaged, she and the people of the Pacific slope believe her unbeatable. She is now five years old. In 1875 she ran at two years old for a purse and stake a mile dash race, winning easily in 1:46, beating Ward Beecher, Maid of the Mist, Rosewood, Sally Harding Elizabeth Tilton and Autocrat. In 1876 she started first race was mile heats, at San José, April 24, for a purse of $200, in which she beat Elizabeth Tilton in 1:48 ¹/₂, 1:51. She then went to San Francisco and a Plate, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds, she beat Ward Beecher a mile and a half in 2:42½. Her next appearance was for the Solano Sweepstakes, a mile and three-quarters, which she won easily in 3:13.

PREFACE

Mr. Richard Ogden, of New York, offered to the association a silver trophy, worth $100, to be put forth by teams of four mares, not commissioned officers, or National Guard of this State. Seven acres (no fighting strict) to be allowed; position standing; to show the best mare of each team. The offer of the rifle was accepted, and the Secretaries of the Rifle Association of Ontario and Prince Edward Islands notified the members of the association that they were invited to attend toward the International match. Inspector of Rifle Practice Wingate moved the following:

Resolved, That for the purpose of promoting public instruction in marksmanship, and to give the international rifle match be announced to take place at the annual meeting of the association, to be held at Greendown in September next to see which teams from the various countries shall be entitled to receive the highest and commendation of Great Britain and from all other countries . . . each country having a national guard of marksmen, to send a team of four mares to represent even.

ran against anything that should offer, and were overjoyed when they heard from California that there was a disposition to run Mollie McCarty against him. As soon as the match was offered it was ac-

Inspector R. H. Pringle, who moved that the Convention of Riflemen be held at Creedmoor on Friday, May 24, 1906, and was seconded by Major Fulton moved that a committee be appointed to establish a basis of representation at the National Convention. Major Fulton's motion was carried.

After some other business of a routine character had been transacted the meeting adjourned.

THE AMATEUR RIFLE CLUB.

The sixth annual meeting of the Amateur Rifle Club took place last evening at the Seventh regiment armory, Colonel E. H. Sanford, president, in the chair. The treasurer of the club reported that at the last annual meeting the financial balance was $220.01, and that during the past year the receipts had been $684.44, and the disbursements $464.44, leaving a balance of $219.99. The secretary reported this sum by $12.43. The secretary proposed that after the meeting the president read a long and interesting report of the yearly doings of the club, including the match with the Victoria Rifle Club, of Ontario, and its interstate match. The President also announced that E. Remington & Sons has offered the club a $150 rifle of double barreled shotgun, at the option of the winner, as a prize to be won by the club in the match to be held at the famous quarters at Creedmoor.

The committee on securing a 1,500 yard range reported that they had secured a 1,500 yard range of ground, just west of the National Association range, suitable for six targets, the annual rent of which would be $100.00, and that they had secured it up for bidding. Major Fulton of the committee stated that a ground could be procured at Elizabethtown, N. J., for $100.00, and that they had secured it up for bidding. Major Fulton of the committee stated that a ground could be procured at Elizabethtown, N. J., for $100.00, and that they had secured it up for bidding. The matter, after considerable debate, was referred to the Executive Committee.

Votes of thanks were tendered to Captain Price, of the Eighth company, Seventh regiment, for the use of the armory, and to the officers and members of the Scouts of Toronto, Canada, for their courteous treatment of the club team while in their city last fall.

Five dollars was appropriated for a gold medal to be given to the Lynch Cup and $100 for prizes in a short and snappy match.

The election of officers resulted as follows:—President, Colonel E. H. Sanford; Vice President, Major J. H. Pringle; Secretary, Major J. H. Pringle; Treasurer, Major J. H. Pringle.

to be provided by E. R. Vanderbilt, the village undertaker. The funeral party alluded to was composed of Charles R. Perdy, grandson of the deceased; William R. Shannon, the husband of her granddaughter;

The Executive Committee of the New Jersey Rifle Association paid a visit to Elizabeth yesterday for the purpose of selecting a range. The following are the gentlemen of the committee: President, Colonel N. Wright, of Newark; Vice President, Captain De Hart, of Elizabeth; Secretary, George A. Squire, of Elizabethport; Treasurer, Mr. Anderson, of Rahway, and Mr. D. A. Vail, of Rahway; Mr. E. S. Munn, of B-raft Point; Messrs. A. V. Warner and J. H. Smith, of Elizabeth; Messrs. J. H. Smith and Dr. J. M. Dart, of this city. The committee visited the proposed site of the range, which lies between Elizabeth and Elizabethport. The grounds are owned by the late John H. Smith, of Elizabeth, New Jersey, and as the travel will be increased over that road by the location of the range here it is thought that the rental for the use of the grounds will be paid. It was found that a distance of 2,500 yards could be

The National Baseball League met at ten o'clock this morning and adjourned sine die at noon. The business transacted was the appointing of a stand of umpires, accepting the resignation of the Louisville Club and denying the request of the Harvard College Club to play with the Boston.

H.O.S.'S NOTES.

Gates H. Bernard has rented Fleetwood Park of the owner, Mr. Newbold Morris, of Morrisania, for five years, at a rental of $8,000. Fleetwood Park has been rented in previous years for $9,000, but never paid, as it was not started on sound principles. It is so hoped that the track will now be managed as it should be, so that the public can have enjoyment there in all sorts or other sports. Don't take place after the enclosure the best may win. With a population of 1,650,000 of sport-loving people within easy distance of Fleetwood Park the place ought to pay well, and we are of opinion that all that is required is to have things done on the square. There are at the present time a number of trotting horses at the track taking exercise, and other trainers have notified Mr. Bernard that they are preparing to come. The following are the horses now being worked on the track, they having been wintered there—Scooner, a bay gelding, by Hambletonian Baiter (2:29½). This horse was out of order the greater part of the winter, but is now being jugged by G. Brown, who will start him in the coming season. Driscoll has Moseley, a bay mare, by Tom Winder (2:30); Pat Mason, black gelding (2:28¾); Lady Emma, and a number of colts. John Murphy has Walter, a brown gelding, by Walter going (2:27½); Curtley Green, bay gelding, by Caroline (2:26¾); Reform, by Messenger Barot (three-year-old record) and Lady (2:26½), owned by Green Mountain Banner (2:22¼). artistic monumental work which it contains. This is an ornamental pedestal of granite and marble, about six feet across the top and four feet wide at the base. It is set upon a large rectangular base of a frame of marble with an ornate top and round corners of the same substance, the sides and ends being of plate glass, forming, in short, a beautiful class case. To a miniature statue inside repues a life sized figure, in pure white marble, of a child about three years old, its head resting in a natural position on its right arm, its left hand while the corner of a marble sheet has been thrown by the sculptor over the centre of the body. The statue rests on a little pedestal from the dead end fast by order of its grandmother, Miss Rootel, who, it is understood, gave the sculptor strict injunctions to follow the outlines of the child's face and limbs, even to the most minute details. On that side of the pedestal which faces the front of the enclosure is inscribed the following:

Hush! Tread lightly, our child is sleeping,
Her life she found in her; her class case, her mother's arms, her wrapping, she seems to wake no more.

In the opposite panel of the pedestal may be read the words written by the grandmother of Frances Anne, daughter of Isaac L. and Caroline S. Parry, born May 7, 1856, died February 1, 1880. "Another day would I have seen you, my dear child," she wrote December 1, 1860, and died March 23, 1863.

After seeing the grave of grandam Rootel filled in the funeral party took the city carriage and returned home on the half-past one o'clock train of New York.

In the death certificate it appears the occupation of Mrs. Rootel was given as "housewife," but this was afterward stricken out and the word "midwife" inserted.

Mrs. Rootel's Will by Beatrix.

In the Court of Orphans and Terminer yesterday morning Mr. Orlando L. Stewart appeared before Judge Danahy and it was stated that no further action was to be taken in the matter of Robert A. Rootel's appointment account of her death. This fact will be incorporated on the indictment. During the day Mr. Rootel's estate was appraised and the proceeds were turned over to the returning officer to be retained the $10,000 bail in bank notes deposited with Mr. Phelps.
